

MADGE SEXTON KINDERGARTEN

We would love donations of.....

As part of our children's creative play at kindergarten we use many varied recycled materials every day.

We love donations of.....

- Donations of toilet paper, tissues or liquid hand soap
- Old bits of technology (phones, video recorders, cameras, keyboards and the likes) for tinkering
- Buttons, buckles, zips, beads, wool or ropes
- Tiles (for mosaic)
- Water pipes (for sandpit construction)
- Anything suitable for dress ups and role play including clothes and props
- Wood pieces suitable for children's woodwork
- Nails and tools
- Old keys and jewellery
- Paper, wrapping paper
- Glad wrap, wrapping paper (or similar) rolls (no toilet rolls please)
- Metal (chains, mesh, springs, nuts, bolts, wire, hooks, washers etc)
- Baskets, wooden containers, glass jars
- Old cds or dvds (for art)
- Dolls clothes suitable for home corner (no Barbie please)
- Food for our lizard (anything that would go in a salad, fruit etc.)
- Saucepans, cooking utensils, etc. for sandpit play
- Occupation related props for our themed "home corners"

Things we can do without, but thank you.....

- Toilet paper rolls (hygiene)
- Egg cartons (allergies)
- Cereal boxes, margarine, yoghurt containers, etc.
- Any container that may have contained nuts including muesli bar boxes (allergies)
- Tampon and medication boxes
- Foam packaging
- Laundry detergent
- Used greeting cards
